

Congressman Raúl M. Grijalva invites you to a
FEDERAL GRANTS WORKSHOP

In cooperation with the Cities of Avondale and Goodyear and the Town of Buckeye

- What: Join the office of Congressman Grijalva, Cities of Avondale and Goodyear, the Town of Buckeye and representatives from federal agencies for an opportunity to survey federal funding opportunities and resources for non-profits and small businesses.
- When: 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m., Tuesday, August 13th, 2013
- Where: Avondale Council Chambers
11465 W Civic Center Drive
Avondale, AZ
- Speakers: Arizona State University: Faye Farmer, Associate Director of Research Strategy Group
- U.S. Department of Education: Joe Barison – Director, Office of Communications and Outreach for the Pacific-Southwest Region
- Environmental Protection Agency: Brent Maier – Congressional Liaison to Region IX
- Small Business Administration: Stephan Hart – Senior Area Manager
- Housing and Urban Development: Ken Einbinder – Senior Management Analyst

To RSVP contact Jose Miranda at:
Email, (jose.miranda@mail.house.gov)
Telephone, (623) 536-3388

Who Should Attend?

This is a great opportunity to familiarize your agency with federal grants landscape. The workshop is designed for those new to grant writing and those looking to improve their understanding of available federal grants.

Speakers will give a brief presentation about the grant application process and current opportunities. This will be followed by dedicated time for interaction with the individual government agencies.