

Congressman Raúl M. Grijalva invites you to a
FEDERAL GRANTS WORKSHOP

What: Join the office of Congressman Grijalva and representatives from 5 federal agencies for an opportunity to survey federal funding opportunities and resources for non-profits and small businesses.

When: 1:00 p.m.- 4:30 p.m., Tuesday, March 13th, 2012

Where: Cesar Chavez Cultural Center
1015 North Main
Street San Luis, AZ

1:00p.m. Grants Basics – Introduction by Arizona Alliance for Non-Profits and Arizona Humanities Council.

1:30p.m.. Overview of available federal grants: Learn about available funding opportunities at each of the attending agencies.

Speakers: Arizona Alliance of Non Profits
Arizona Humanities Council
US Department of Education: Joe Barison
Environmental Protection Agency- Brian Davidson
Small Business Administration: Robert Blaney
Department of Housing and Urban Development: Bill Shaw
Department of Health and Human Services: Kay A. Strawder, JD, MSW

2:30p.m. Breakout groups: The speakers will be available to answer questions and go into more details about the grant opportunities at their specific agencies.

Please feel free to attend all or certain portions of the day's presentations.
To RSVP contact Clara Ortiz (clara.ortiz@mail.house.gov) or 520-622-6788

Who Should Attend?

This is a great opportunity to familiarize your agency with federal grants landscape. The workshop is designed for those new to grant writing and those looking to improve their understanding of available federal grants.

Each agency will give a brief presentation about specific available grant opportunities, followed by an opportunity to further discuss grant opportunities with each presenter.

We hope you will join us for this opportunity.