

Dear Principals and Teachers,

The office of Congressman Raúl M. Grijalva is excited to announce the 2015 Congressional Art Competition! This competition is a chance for students at the high school level to have their artwork recognized in the Cannon Tunnel in Washington D.C for a full year! The winner of this competition will be flown to Washington D.C. for an unveiling reception with students from across the nation. The dates for AZ Congressional District 3 are as follows:

Friday, April 17th: All artwork is due at our Tucson District Office

May: Congressman Grijalva will announce the winner

Late June: Winner's Reception in Washington- The winner of the 2015 Congressional Art Competition will be in Washington D.C. to see the unveiling of their piece of art in Cannon Tunnel.

We are asking for your help to spread the word about this wonderful opportunity for students in your school. Below is a list of all the rules, regulations and guidelines regarding the art competition. All students MUST submit a "Student Information Release Form" which is attached. In addition, a flyer is attached that can be displayed on school campus and classrooms.

A list of all rules, regulations, and guidelines can be found at:
